

Local Summer Markets and Fairs 2022

Seasonal fairs & local markets can offer a number of opportunities to local voluntary groups and charities to raise your profile in the community, raise funds on a stall or raise funds by being chosen as a beneficiary charity. Please always check individual websites for up to date information and Covid guidance.

Ham Parade Market

Ham Parade Market is open on the first Saturday of the month (excluding January) and offers crafts and fresh produce. Its mission is “investment in the community, for the community, by the community”. The market supports a different local charity each month, providing a free of charge stall for a charity to raise awareness and/or funds. In addition, they run a raffle at each market with the proceeds donated to that month’s charity. Visit the Ham Parade Market website.

Kew Village Market

Kew Village Market is usually held on the first Sunday of the month except in January. It is run by volunteers with the aim of helping local good causes and to encourage footfall to the Kew Village area. Since 2011 they have donated £78k to local charities. Awards are made four times a year in October, December, March and July and range from £500 to £1000. Charities are welcome to have a free stall at the market to raise their profile and funds - for details of how to apply, visit the Kew Village Market website (click on the ‘Charity’ tab).

Surbiton Farmers Market

For local charities and good causes that also have beneficiaries in Kingston, Surbiton Farmers Market (SFM) is run by the community for the community. It takes place on the third Saturday of the month and since 2009 has raised over £60k for local charities. Each month a charity can have a free stall to promote what they do and raise funds, which SFM will match up to a maximum of £250. They also make charity donations from the proceeds of stall hire. Visit the Surbiton Farmers Market Facebook page.

Twickenham Town Business Association

Twickenham Town Business Association run regular seasonal events across the year and you can hire stalls at their events at reasonable rates. Follow their Twitter feed for updates.

Richmond May Fair – date and details pending

Richmond May Fair takes place on Richmond Green and the area around the parish church of St Mary Magdalene and Richmond Green. In 2019 the Business Improvement District (BID) provider Be Richmond took on the management of the fair, and it was a successful day with both charities and commercial stalls benefiting. It was cancelled in 2020/21 and there is no indication, as yet, whether there will be a date in 2022. The Richmond May Fair Ball, which raises money for selected charities has been cancelled for 2022. For updates, check the Be Richmond website.
