

Local Markets & Summer Fairs 2025

Seasonal fairs & local markets offer a number of opportunities to local voluntary groups and charities to raise your profile in the community, raise funds on a stall or raise funds by being chosen as a beneficiary charity. Please always check individual websites for up to date information

Local Markets

Ham Parade Market

Ham Parade Market is open on the first Saturday of the month (excluding January) and offers crafts and fresh produce. Its mission is “investment in the community, for the community, by the community”. The market supports a different local charity each month, providing a free of charge stall for a charity to raise awareness and/or funds. Apply here In addition, they run a raffle at each market with the proceeds donated to that month’s charity. To date they have raised over £15k for local good causes. Visit the Ham Parade Market website.

Kew Village Market

Kew Village Market is usually held on the first Sunday of the month except in January. It is run by volunteers with the aim of helping local good causes and to encourage footfall to the Kew Village area. Since 2011 they have donated £104k to local charities. Awards are made four times a year in October, December, March and July and range from £300 to £1,000. Charities are welcome to have a free stall at the market to raise their profile and funds. For details of how to apply, visit the Kew Village Market website

Surbiton Farmers Market

For local charities and good causes that also have beneficiaries in Kingston, Surbiton Farmers Market (SFM) is run by the community for the community. It takes place on the third Saturday of the month and since 2009 has raised over £65k for local charities. Each month a charity can have a free stall to promote what they do and raise funds, which SFM will match up to a maximum of £250. They also make charity donations from the proceeds of stall hire. Visit the Surbiton Farmers Market website.

Local Fairs

Richmond May Fair – 10th May 2025

Richmond May Fair takes place on Richmond Green and the area around the parish church of St Mary Magdalene and Richmond Green. Visit Richmond May Fair 2025 website

Twickenham Green Rotary Charities Fair – 26th May 2025

The aim of the Fair is to enable local charities and good causes to have stalls, raise funds and promote their work.

Ham Fair (Ham Common) – 14th June 2025

This annual fair, organised by Ham and Petersham Association and Amenities Group, is booked for 14th June 2025 with profits distributed to good causes. Stall information and the form to book for this year are available here. Charity rates are available.

Kew Midsummer Fete – 21st June 2025

This very popular fair donates all its operating profits to local charities and, since it began in 2010, more than £200k has been donated to good causes in the Richmond area. They are accepting stall enquiries now. Application forms to be considered as a beneficiary charity should be available towards end-March 2025. Check the Kew Fete website.

Teddington Village Fair – 22nd June 2025

The Teddington Village Fair is organised by the Rotary Club of Teddington and the Hamptons with booking details at Teddington Village Fair 2025 - Rotary Teddington & The Hamptons . There is no charge for a pitch but there is an expected donation based on a 5% of your profits on the day (minimum suggested £10) payable to the Rotary Foundation Charity Fund.

St Margarets Fair 2025 – 5th July

Half the proceeds of this fair go to five schools – Orleans Primary, St Marys, St Stephens, Orleans Park and The Deer Park School - with the remaining 50% supporting selected local charities. Stall applications are open and the information is available at <https://www.stmargaretsfair.org/>

Barnes Fair – 12th July 2025

The annual Barnes Fair featuring more than 300 charity stalls, takes place on Barnes Green and raises money for Barnes Community Association (BCA), who distribute it to support local charities by request. If you are a Barnes-based charity, you can apply for a grant from the BCA throughout the year. For stall applications and announcements check the Barnes Community Association or BCA Instagram posts.

For other fundraising opportunities and advice, support, training and to sign up for our newsletter, please visit www.richmondcvcs.org.uk.

Prepared by Heather Mathew, Richmond CVS

Updated March 2025